

The Story of Anit Arac Cave

The story begins with Alex and Steve. Alex and Steve are out fishing on a boat in Antarctica. They catch a fish but something catches their attention. They go towards it and see a cave. Alex and Steve look at the cave but Alex and Steve trip and fall in the cave. It is a glacier and lava cave. That's a lot of shiny crystals on the top of the cave. Alex and Steve said "It's so cold Alex said it looks like somebody has been here. They find a chest with two sweaters and a flashlight. Alex and Steve start walking. They start to get scared and it starts getting dark. Steve gets a flashlight. A crystal had fallen off the roof. They found another chest. It had blankets and pillows. Steve makes a bed and they go to sleep Alex and Steve wake up. They start to hear loud footsteps and they hear roaring. Something comes out of the shadows. It looks like a lava and ice monster. Alex and Steve get scared and start running. They fall in to an ice part of the cave. They swam through the water and they escape the monster. Steve finds another chest. It has two pickaxes and Steve and Alex go to part of the cave where there is lava. Steve and Alex start to mine for the exit Steve finds the exit and they escape and find the boat.

E. Arias